Workshop – One step forward

Questions for getting to know your role:
- How was your childhood?
- Where did you live when you grow up?
- Where do you live today?
- What are your friends like?
- How could a day look like in your life?
- What makes you happy?
- What makes you afraid?

Take one step forward if…
- You never had any economical problems.
- You have Internet at home.
- You have your own bedroom.
- You feel respected in the society you live in.
- You feel that people listen to you.
- You are not afraid of being stopped by the police.
- You can study whatever you want.
- You can see the doctor if you get sick.
- You can go for holiday every year.
- You can get the work you want.
- You can do something fun every week (movie, theatre, concert, coffee with friends…)
- You can marry the one you want.
- You are not afraid of walking home when it’s dark.
- You are happy.
To discuss in small groups

- How did it feel to go one step forward
- How did it feel to stay
- When did you notice that you went before/ahead or after the others?
- How was that?

The role cards had only a little information, the rest you decided by yourself

- What gender did your role got?
- What skin color?
- Could you walk, see and hear?
- How important was your own prejudices (norms, view, thoughts) when you decided to take a step forward or stay?
Roles:

You are bisexual, your parents are from Chile and you live in Sweden

You are married to an American ambassador and you live in Paris

You are living as hidden refugees, in an apartment with one room

You are a famous fashion model with eating disorders

You have just moved and changed job because you want to get closer to your mother in prison

You are the child of an immigrant Chinese, who runs a restaurant where you work

You are a wheelchair user and work in a political party

You have just moved, from a city to another, because you did not got a job in your hometown

You are a Muslim living with your family in Sweden, and you are strong believers

You are a homeless seventeen year old who is addicted to heroin

When you were 18 years old you were in a car accident that made you lame
You are a child of a politically engaged parent who is famous where you live

You are 24 years old and practicing on your mother's law office (she's a lawyer)

You are 43 years old without education and work as a cleaner

You are a doctor and working at the International Red Cross

You are the children of a managing director at a large company and studying economy

You grew up in a strongly religious Christian family in the countryside

You are a 30-year old Roma girl who has not completed primary school

You are a single father of two children and lives in a medium sized city. You have a temporary job

Your father is Swedish and your mother is from Egypt. You live in Germany and are married to an Italian

Tinna Stille Öster, Folkuniversitetet, Sweden 2011